

Sexual Misconduct Data Report

September 1, 2016-August 31, 2017

Introduction

Northwestern University is committed to fostering an environment in which all members of our community are safe, secure, and free from sexual misconduct of any form. Northwestern's Policy on Sexual Misconduct prohibits all forms of sexual misconduct, including sexual assault, sexual exploitation, stalking, dating and domestic violence, and sexual harassment.

When an incident of alleged sexual misconduct is reported to the University, whether it is reported in person, by email, electronically, anonymously, or through another person, the Office

Data

1. Distribution of All Reports by Type of Allegation

The following chart illustrates the distribution by type of sexual misconduct allegation of the 254 reports received by the University in the 2016-2017 academic year. Additional categories were added to reflect combined reports of sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, and stalking. When a report involved allegations of other combinations of sexual misconduct offenses (e.g. sexual assault and sexual harassment), it was categorized on the basis of the primary allegation.

2. Distribution of All Reports by Respondent Affiliation

This chart illustrates the distribution by respondent affiliation of the 254 sexual misconduct reports received by the University in the 2016-2017 academic year. The respondent is the person who is alleged to have engaged in sexual misconduct. It is important to note that 84 (43%) of the reports received were against people not affiliated with Northwestern or people whose identity was unknown. For example, this includes reports about behavior by unaffiliated dating/domestic partners as well as incidents occurring off campus by non-Northwestern community members.⁴

⁴ When Northwestern receives reports alleging sexual misconduct by people not affiliated with the University (and not otherwise connected to a University program or activity), support and resources are offered to the impacted individual(s) and other measures that may be needed to secure the safety of the community are taken; however, the
